9. TRADING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Placing of instructions

You may give us instructions in electronic form through the Company Online Trading System (Platform). If any instructions are received by us through electronic means we may ask you to confirm such instructions in writing. We shall be authorised to follow instructions notwithstanding your failure to confirm them in writing. In this Agreement "instructions" and "orders" have the same meaning.

Types of Orders Accepted

Some of the types of orders The Company accepts include, but are not limited to:

- a. Good till Cancelled ("GTC")- An order (other than a market order), that by its terms is effective until filled or cancelled by Customer. GTC Orders do not automatically cancel at the end of the Business Day on which they are placed.
- b. Limit- An order (other than a market order) to buy or sell the identified market at a specified price. A limit order to buy generally will be executed when the ask price equals or falls below the bid price that you specify in the limit order. A limit order to sell generally will be executed when the bid price equals or exceeds the ask price that you specify in the limit order.
- c. Market- An order to buy or sell the identified market at the current market price that The Company provides via the Online Trading System. An order to buy is executed at the current market ask price and an order to sell is executed at the current market bid price.
- d. One Cancels the Other ("OCO")- An order that is linked to another order. If one of the orders is executed, the other will be automatically cancelled.
- e. Stop Loss- A stop loss order is an instruction to buy or sell a market at a price which is worse than the opening price of an open position (or worse than the prevailing price when applying the stop loss order to an already open position). It can be used to help protect against losses. Please note that because of market gapping, the best available price that may be achieved could be materially different to the price set on the stop loss order and as such, stop loss orders are not guaranteed to take effect at the price for which they are set.

- f. Trailing Stop- A trailing stop is the same as a stop loss order with the only difference being that, instead of setting a price at which the order is activated, the trailing stop order is activated at a fixed distance from the market price. For example, if Customer has purchased a long open position and the market ask price increases, the trailing stop price will also increase and will trail behind the market ask price at the fixed distance set by Customer. If the market ask price then decreases, the trailing stop price will remain fixed at its last position and if the market ask price reaches the trailing stop price, the order will be executed. Please note that because of market gapping, the best available price that may be achieved could be materially different to the price set on the trailing stop order and as such, trailing stop orders are not guaranteed to take effect at the fixed distance for which they are set.

Following submission of an order, it is your sole responsibility to remain available for order and fill confirmations, and other communications regarding your Account until all open orders are completed. Thereafter, you must monitor your Account frequently when you have open positions in the Account.

Your order shall be valid in accordance with the type and time of the given order, as specified. If the time of validity or expiration date/time of the order is not specified, it shall be valid for an indefinite period.

Terms of Acceptance for Orders

It is your sole responsibility to clearly indicate the terms of an order when entered, whether it is a market order, limit order, stop loss order or any other type of order, including the relevant price and lot size. You acknowledge and agree that, despite our best efforts, the price at which execution occurs may be materially different (positive or negative to the client) to the price specified in your order. This may result from sudden price movements in the underlying assets that are beyond our control. The Company shall have no liability for failure to execute orders. The Company shall have the right, but not the obligation, to reject any order in whole or in part prior to execution, or to cancel any order, where your Account contains margin that is insufficient to support the entire order or where such order is illegal or otherwise improper.

Execution Policy

We are required to have an execution policy and to provide our clients with appropriate information in relation to our execution policy. Where you place orders with us, the execution factors that we consider, and their relative importance is as set out below:

- a. Price. The relative importance we attach is “high”.
- b. Speed. The relative importance we attach is “high”.
- c. Likelihood of execution and settlement. The relative importance we attach is “high”.
- d. Size. The relative importance we attach is “high”.

We are the principal to every order you place with us and therefore we are the only execution venue.

Cancellation of trades

We have the right to reject an order or to cancel a trade if we have evidence on:

- 1. fraud/illegal actions that led to the transaction,
- 2. any instance when The Company has cause to believe that a person's trading activities may be illegal;
- 3. any instance where The Company may suffer any fiscal, regulatory, or pecuniary disadvantage by virtue of anyone's activities;
- 4. any instance where one or more transactions are judged by The Company to have been performed in violation of this Agreement;
- 5. orders placed based on manipulated prices as a result of system errors or system malfunctions;
- 6. arbitrage trading on prices offered by our platforms as a result of systems errors; and
- 7. coordinated transactions by related parties in order to take advantage of systems errors and delays on systems updates.

We reserve the right to cancel any and/or all trading positions and withhold and/or forfeit any profits incurred by the Customer on all the Customer's trades if we consider that that the Customer has engaged in market Arbitrage.

Authority

We shall be entitled to act for you upon instructions given or purporting to be given by you or any person authorised on your behalf without further enquiry as to the genuineness, authority or identity of the person giving or purporting to give such instructions provided such instruction is accompanied by your correct Account number and password. If your Account is a joint account, you agree that we are authorized to act on the instructions of any one person in whose name the Account is held, without further inquiry. We shall have no responsibility for further inquiry into such apparent authority and no liability for the consequences of any actions taken or failed to be taken by us in reliance on any such instructions or on the apparent authority of any such persons.

Cancellation/withdrawal of instructions

Non-market orders may be cancelled via the Company Online Trading System, but we can only cancel your instructions if you explicitly request so, provided that we have not acted up to the time of your request upon those instructions. Executed instructions may only be withdrawn or amended by you with our consent. The Company shall have no liability for any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including legal fees, arising directly or indirectly out of the failure of such order to be cancelled.

Right not to accept orders

We may, but shall not be obliged to, accept instructions to enter into a Transaction. If we decline to enter into a proposed Transaction, we shall not be obliged to give a reason, but we shall promptly notify you accordingly.

Control of orders prior to execution

We have the right (but not the obligation) to set limits and/or parameters to control your ability to place orders at our absolute discretion. Such limits and/or parameters may be amended, increased, decreased, removed or added to by us at our absolute discretion and may include (without limitation):

- a. controls over maximum order amounts and maximum order sizes;
- b. controls over our total exposure to you;
- c. controls over prices at which orders may be submitted (to include (without limitation) controls over orders which are at a price which differs greatly from the market price at the time the order is submitted to the order book);
- d. controls over the Electronic Services (to include (without limitation) any verification procedures to ensure that any particular order or orders has come from you); and/or
- e. any other limits, parameters or controls which we may be required to implement in accordance with Applicable Regulations.

Trade Adjustments

Customers must be aware that Foreign exchange transactions carry a high degree of risk. The amount of initial margin may be small relative to the value of the foreign currency so that transactions are 'leveraged' or 'geared'. A relatively small market movement may have a proportionately larger impact on the funds that the Customer has deposited or will have to deposit. This may work against as well as positive for the customer.

The Company exclusively reserves the right to widen its variable spreads, adjust leverage, change its rollover rates and/or increase the margin requirements without notice under certain market conditions including, but not limited to, when the trading desk is closed, around fundamental announcements, as a result of changes in credit markets and/or at times of extreme market volatility. In such circumstances, the Customer agrees to indemnify The Company for any and all losses that may occur due the widening of spreads and the adjustment of leverage.

Execution of orders

We shall use our reasonable endeavors to execute any order promptly, but in accepting your orders we do not represent or warrant that it will be possible to execute such order or that execution will be possible according to your instructions. If we encounter any material difficulty relevant to the proper carrying out of an order on your behalf we shall notify you promptly.

Where we execute a Transaction on your behalf outside a trading venue in respect of shares, depositary receipts and other transferable securities traded on a trading venue, we will make the relevant transaction information (including volume, price and the time that the Transaction was concluded) public as required in accordance with the applicable regulations through an approved publication arrangement or trading venue.

Confirmations

At the end of each trading day, confirmations for all Transactions that we have executed on your behalf on that trading day will be available via your online Account on our website, which is updated online as each Transaction is executed. Confirmation of execution and statements of your Account(s), in the absence of manifest error, shall be deemed correct, conclusive and binding upon you if not objected to immediately by email if orders were placed through the Company Online Trading System or by telephone to the Company's Trading Desk, within five Business Days of making such confirmations available to you via our website or we notify you of an error in the confirmation within the same period.

In cases where the prevailing market represents prices different from the prices posted by The Company, The Company will attempt, on a best efforts basis and in good faith, to execute market orders on or close to the prevailing market prices. This may or may not adversely affect customers realized and unrealized gains and losses.

Improper or Abusive Trading

The Company's objective is to provide the most efficient trading liquidity available in the form of streaming, tradable prices for most of the financial instruments we offer on the trading platform. As a result of the highly automated nature of the delivery of these streaming, tradable prices, you acknowledge and accept that price misquotations are likely to occur from time to time.

Should you execute trading strategies with the objective of exploiting such misquotation(s) or act in bad faith (commonly known as 'sniping'), The Company shall consider this as unacceptable behavior. Should the Company determine, at its sole discretion and in good faith, that you or any representative of yours trading on your behalf is taking advantage, benefitting, attempting to take advantage or to benefit of such misquotation(s) or that you are committing any other improper or abusive trading act such as for example:

- a. fraud/illegal actions that led to the transaction;
- b. orders placed based on manipulated prices as a result of system errors or system malfunctions;
- c. arbitrage trading on prices offered by our platforms as a result of systems errors; and/or
- d. coordinated transactions by related parties in order to take advantage of systems errors and delays on systems updates.

Then the Company will have the right to:

- a. adjust the price available to you; and/or
- b. remove the illicit profit without the client's initial deposit be affected
- c. restrict your access to streaming, instantly tradable quotes, including providing manual quotation only; and/or
- d. obtain from your account any historic trading profits that you have gained through such abuse of liquidity as determined by us at any time during our trading relationship; and/or
- e. reject an order or to cancel a trade; and/or
- f. immediately terminate our trading relationship

Prohibited Trading

Liquidation Date

Subject to the following sub-clause, at any time following the occurrence of an Event of Default, we may, by notice to you, specify a date (the “Liquidation Date”) for the termination and liquidation of Transactions in accordance with this clause.

Automatic termination

The date of the occurrence of any Bankruptcy Default shall automatically constitute a Liquidation Date, without the need for any notice by us and the provisions of the following sub-clause shall then apply.

Calculation of Liquidation Amount

Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Date:

- i. neither of us shall be obliged to make any further payments or deliveries under any Transactions which would, but for this clause, have fallen due for performance on or after the Liquidation Date and such obligations shall be satisfied by settlement (whether by payment, set-off or otherwise) of the Liquidation Amount (as defined below);
- ii. we shall (on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Liquidation Date) determine (discounting if appropriate), in respect of each Transaction the total cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain, in each case expressed in the Base Currency specified by us in writing or, failing any such specification, the lawful

- currency of the United States (and, if appropriate, including any loss of bargain, cost of funding or, without duplication, cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain as a result of the termination, liquidation, obtaining, performing or re-establishing of any hedge or related trading position) as a result of the termination, pursuant to this Agreement, of each payment or delivery which would otherwise have been required to be made under such Transaction (assuming satisfaction of each applicable condition precedent and having due regard, if appropriate, to such market quotations published on, or official settlement prices set by the relevant exchange as may be available on, or immediately preceding, the date of calculation); and
- iii. we shall treat each cost or loss to us, determined as above, as a positive amount and each gain by us, so determined, as a negative amount and aggregate all of such amounts to produce a single, net positive or negative amount, denominated in the Base Currency (the “Liquidation Amount”).

Payer

If the Liquidation Amount determined pursuant to this clause is a positive amount, you shall pay it to us and if it is a negative amount, we shall pay it to you. We shall notify you of the Liquidation Amount, and by whom it is payable, immediately after the calculation of such amount.

Other transactions

Where termination and liquidation occur in accordance with this clause, we shall also be entitled, at our discretion, to terminate and liquidate, in accordance with the provisions of this clause, any other transactions entered into between us which are then outstanding.

Payment

The Liquidation Amount shall be paid in the Base Currency by the close of business on the Business Day following the completion of the termination and liquidation under this clause (converted as required by applicable law into any other currency, any costs of such conversion to be borne by you, and (if applicable) deducted from any payment to you). Any Liquidation Amount not paid on the due date shall be treated as an unpaid such amount and bear interest, at the average rate at which overnight deposits in the currency of such payment are offered by major banks in the London interbank market as of 11.00 am (London time) (or, if no such rate is available, at such reasonable rate as we may select) plus one (1%) per annum for each day for which such amount remains unpaid.

Base Currency

For the purposes of any calculation hereunder, we may convert amounts denominated in any other currency into the Base Currency at such rate prevailing at the time of the calculation as we shall reasonably select.

Payments

Unless a Liquidation Date has occurred or has been effectively set, we shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery scheduled to be made by us under a Transaction for as long as an Event of Default or any event which may become (with the passage of time, the giving of notice, the making of any determination hereunder, or any combination thereof) an Event of Default with respect to you has occurred and is continuing.

Additional rights

Our rights under this clause shall be in addition to, and not in limitation or exclusion of, any other rights which we may have (whether by agreement, operation of law or otherwise).

This clause applies to each Transaction entered into or outstanding between us on or after the date this Agreement takes effect.

Single agreement

This Agreement, the particular terms applicable to each Transaction entered into under this Agreement, and all amendments to any of them shall together constitute a single agreement between us. We both acknowledge that all Transactions entered into on or after the date this Agreement takes effect are entered into in reliance upon the fact that the Agreement and all such terms constitute a single agreement between us.

16. RIGHTS ON DEFAULT

Default

On an Event of Default or at any time after we have determined, in our absolute discretion, that you have not performed (or we reasonably believe that you will not be able or willing in the future to perform) any of your obligations to us, in addition to any rights under the Clause 15 (Netting) we shall be entitled, without prior notice to you:

- i. instead of returning to your investments equivalent to those credited to your account, to pay to you the fair market value of such investments at the time we exercise such right;
- ii. to sell such of your investments as are in our possession or in the possession of any nominee or third party appointed under or pursuant to this Agreement, in each case as we may in our absolute discretion select or and upon such terms as we may in our absolute discretion think fit (without being responsible for any loss or diminution in price) in order to realise funds sufficient to cover any amount due by you hereunder;
- iii. to close out, replace or reverse any Transaction, buy, sell, borrow or lend or enter into any other Transaction or take, or refrain from taking, such other action at such time or times and in such manner as, at our sole discretion, we consider necessary or appropriate to cover, reduce or eliminate our loss or liability under or in respect of any of your contracts, positions or commitments; and/or
- iv. to cancel and/or consider void any Transactions and profits or losses either realised or unrealised and/or to close out the account(s) you maintain with us pursuant to this Agreement, immediately and without prior notice.

17. TERMINATION WITHOUT DEFAULT

Termination

Unless required by Applicable Regulations, either party may terminate this Agreement (and the relationship between us) by giving Fourteen (14) days written notice of termination to the other. We may terminate this Agreement immediately if you fail to observe or perform any provision of this Agreement or in the event of your insolvency.

Upon terminating this Agreement:

- i. all amounts payable by you to us will become immediately due and payable including (but without limitation):
 - a. all outstanding fees, charges and commissions;
 - b. any dealing expenses incurred by terminating this Agreement; and
 - c. any losses and expenses realised in closing out any Transactions or settling or concluding outstanding obligations incurred by us on your behalf.
- ii. The Company shall apply best execution rules in cases where you have not provided The Company with specific instructions regarding the closing of your positions.

The Company shall return any funds remaining in your trading account to your bank account, specifically the account from which the funds were debited. Your funds may be returned to another bank account to which you are the beneficiary as long as you provide us with the required documents to verify that the account belongs to you.

Existing rights

Termination shall not affect then outstanding rights and obligations and Transactions which shall continue to be governed by this Agreement and the particular clauses agreed between us in relation to such Transactions until all obligations have been fully performed.

18. EXCLUSIONS, LIMITATIONS AND INDEMNITY

General Exclusion

Neither we nor our directors, officers, employees, or agents shall be liable for any losses, damages, costs or expenses, whether arising out of negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or otherwise, incurred or suffered by you under this Agreement (including any Transaction or where we have declined to enter into a proposed Transaction) unless such loss is a reasonably foreseeable consequence or arises directly from our or their respective gross negligence, willful default or fraud. In no circumstance, shall we have liability for losses suffered by you or any third party for any special or consequential damage, loss of profits, loss of goodwill or loss of business opportunity arising under or in connection with this Agreement, whether arising out of negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or otherwise. Nothing in this Agreement will limit our liability for death or personal injury resulting from our negligence.

Tax implications

Without limitation, we do not accept liability for any adverse tax implications of any Transaction whatsoever.

Changes in the market

In regard to trading in Foreign Exchange Derivative contracts, market orders are executed at the bid/ask prices offered through us. Pending orders (stop loss, limit (take profit), entry limit (to buy or to sell), entry stop (to buy or to sell) are executed at the then market price requested by you and offered through us.

We reserve the right, at our full discretion, not to execute the order, or to change the quoted price of the Transaction, or to offer you a new quote, in case of technical failure of the trading platform or in case of extraordinary or abnormal fluctuations of the price of the financial instrument as offered in the market. In the event we offer you a new quote you have the right to either accept it or refuse it and thus cancel the execution of the Transaction.

Without limitation, we do not accept any liability by reason of any delay or change in market conditions before any particular Transaction is affected.

Limitation of Liability

We shall not be liable to you for any partial or non-performance of our obligations hereunder by reason of any cause beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation any breakdown, delay, malfunction or failure of transmission, communication or computer facilities, industrial action, act of terrorism, act of God, acts and regulations of any governmental or supra national bodies or authorities or the failure by the relevant intermediate broker or agent, agent or principal of our custodian, sub-custodian, dealer, exchange, clearing house or regulatory or self-regulatory organisation, for any reason, to perform its obligations. Nothing in this Agreement will exclude or restrict any duty or liability we may have to you under Applicable Regulations, which may not be excluded or restricted thereunder.

Responsibility for orders

You will be responsible for all orders entered on your behalf via an Electronic Service and you will be fully liable to us for the settlement of any Transaction arising from it.

Entire Agreement

You acknowledge that you have not relied on or been induced to enter into this Agreement by a representation other than those expressly set out in this Agreement. We will not be liable to you (in equity, contract or tort) for a representation that is not set out in this Agreement and that is not fraudulent.

Indemnity

You shall pay to us such sums as we may from time to time require in or towards satisfaction of any debit balance on any of your accounts with us and, on a full indemnity basis, any losses, liabilities, costs or expenses (including legal fees), taxes, imposts and levies which we may incur or be subjected to with respect to any of your accounts or any Transaction or as a result of any misrepresentation by you or any violation by you of your obligations under this Agreement (including any Transaction) or by the enforcement of our rights.

19. INDUCEMENTS

Generally, we are obliged to act honestly, fairly and professionally in accordance with the best interest of you. In this respect, under inducement rules, we will not pay to or accept from any party (other than you) any fee or commission in connection with the provision of a service unless these payments and/or benefit meet certain criteria as defined in the Applicable Regulations. Similarly, we will not provide to or receive from any party (other than you) any non-monetary benefit in connection with the provision of a service.

By way of derogation of the above, in case where the fee, commission or non-monetary benefit was designed to enhance the quality of the relevant service to the client and does not impair compliance with our duty to act honestly, fairly and professionally for your best interest, we may pay, provide, accept or receive a fee, commission or non-monetary benefit. In such a case, we will clearly disclose to you. The information to be disclosed include inter alia, the existence, nature and amount of the payment or benefit, whether the Company accepts minor non-monetary benefits, ongoing inducements, the methodology of calculation of such amounts if not known from the beginning.

20. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

You should be aware that when we enter into a transaction with or for you, we or our directors, officers, employees, agents and affiliated entities or Service Providers, may have an interest, relationship or arrangement that is material in relation to the transaction concerned. Should such a conflict of interest arise we will seek to resolve such conflict in such a way as we believe is in your best interests in accordance with our conflicts of interest policy (as amended from time to time) (Conflicts of Interest Policy).

Our conflicts of interest policy consist of procedures and controls designed to:

- prevent the occurrence of conflicts of interest, including where necessary declining to carry out an activity, operation or mandate; and
- conduct its business activities in a way which ensures that the best interests of the Company's clients are followed, and strict confidentiality of information is maintained across all the activities which could potentially generate conflicts of interest.

These procedures and controls include administrative and organizational arrangements to ensure the proper execution of the Client's orders.

You acknowledge, agree and accept that you have referred to our Conflict of Interest Policy for the management of Conflicts of Interest for further information regarding how we seek to manage conflicts of interest that may arise when we provide the services to you. Upon request, we will provide you with any further details in that regard.

21. REGULATORY REPORTING

Regulatory reporting

You consent to us disclosing information or data in connection with or relating to you, your transactions with us and Positions, or these Terms to the FSA and other regulatory bodies or Markets, to the extent we determine that we are required, permitted or it is desirable to comply with Applicable Regulations or rules of any Market. We may also be required under Applicable Regulations to make public certain information regarding our transactions with you. You acknowledge and agree that we are entitled to report and disclose such information and such information held by us shall be our sole and exclusive property.

You agree to provide us with all information that we may reasonably request for the purpose of complying with our obligations under Applicable Regulations. You consent for us to provide to any third party such information about you and your relationship with us pursuant to these Terms (including your transactions and Position, and money on your Account) as we reasonably consider appropriate or as required under any Applicable Regulation or provision under these Terms.

No reporting on your behalf

You acknowledge and agree that unless otherwise agreed in writing between you and us, we shall not make any reports on your behalf which you may be required to make under any Applicable Regulations.

For the avoidance of doubt, we shall not carry out any reporting on your behalf, unless we have agreed otherwise in writing. You shall remain solely responsible for the reporting of your transactions. Where we agree to report transactions on your behalf, we may charge you an additional fee and impose other conditions.

22. FORCE MAJEURE

Definition of Force Majeure Event

A Force Majeure Event refers to any occurrence or non-occurrence as a direct or indirect result of which a party is prevented from or delayed in performing any of its obligations (other than a payment obligation) under this Agreement and that is beyond the reasonable control of that party, including forces of nature, industrial action and action or inaction by a government agency.

A Force Majeure Event includes:

- a) us, in our opinion, becoming unable to maintain an orderly market in respect of a product for one or more of the underlying instruments as a result of the occurrence of any act, omission or event (including a strike, riot, civil unrest or failure of power supply, communications or other infrastructure);
- b) the suspension, closure, liquidation or
 - i. abandonment of any relevant market; or
 - ii. underlying instruments;
- c) the imposition of limits or special or unusual terms in the relevant markets or Underlying Instruments; or
- d) the excessive movement, volatility or loss of liquidity in the relevant markets or Underlying Instruments; or
- e) where we reasonably anticipate that any of the circumstances listed in clauses (a) to (d) above are about to occur.

Notice and Suspension of Obligations

If a party to this Agreement is affected, or likely to be affected, by a Force Majeure Event:

- a) that party must immediately give the other prompt notice of that fact including:
 - i. full particulars of the Force Majeure Event;
 - ii. an estimate of its likely duration;
 - iii. the obligations affected by it and the extent of its effect on those obligations; and
 - iv. the steps taken to rectify it; and
- b) the obligations under this Agreement of the party giving the notice are suspended to the extent to which they are affected by the relevant Force Majeure Event as long as the Force Majeure Event continues.

Reasonable Endeavours

A party claiming a Force Majeure Event must use reasonable endeavours to remove, overcome or minimise the effects of that Force Majeure Event as quickly as possible. This does not require a party to settle any industrial dispute in any way that it considers inappropriate. If the party comes to the view that the Force Majeure Event is not amenable to such actions, it must notify the other party as soon as possible.

Termination due to Force Majeure Event

- a) If a Force Majeure Event continues for more than five (5) business days, either party may terminate this Agreement immediately by giving written notice to the other party; and
- b) In the event of termination under paragraph (a), neither party is liable to the other except to the extent of rights or obligations which accrued before the termination.

Additional Actions

If we reasonably determine that a Force Majeure Event exists then we may (without prejudice to any other rights under this Agreement and at our sole discretion) take any one or more of the following actions:

- a) alter normal trading times;
- b) alter the Margin Requirement;
- c) amend or vary this Agreement and any transaction contemplated by this Agreement, including any position, insofar as it is impractical or impossible for us to comply with our obligations to you;
- d) close any or all existing positions, cancel instructions and orders as we deem to be appropriate in the circumstances; or
- e) take or omit to take all such other actions as we deem to be reasonably appropriate in the circumstances having regard to the positions of us, you and other clients.

To an extent practicable, we will take reasonable steps to notify you, of any action that we propose to take under this clause. If it is not practicable to give you prior notice, we will notify you promptly after taking any such action.

Liability

If we reasonably determine in our absolute discretion that a Force Majeure Event exists, we will not be liable to you for any failure, hindrance or delay in performing our obligations under this Agreement or for taking or omitting to take any action.

23. MISCELLANEOUS

We have the right to amend the terms of this Agreement. If we make any material change to this Agreement, we will give at least ten business days written notice to you. Such amendment will become effective on the date specified in the notice. Unless otherwise agreed, an amendment will not affect any outstanding order or Transaction or any legal rights or obligations which may already have arisen.

Set-off

Without prejudice to any other rights to which we may be entitled, we may at any time and without notice to you set off any amount (whether actual or contingent, present or future) owed by you to us against any amount (whether actual or contingent, present or future) owed by us to you. 4. The Company may obtain and subsequently transmit to you any relevant information it receives from a clearing firm that it deems appropriate.
5. We act as principal and not as agent on your behalf and you enter this Agreement as principal and not as agent (or trustee) on behalf of someone else.

Responsibility for orders

1. You, the client, will be responsible for all orders entered on your behalf via an Electronic Service and you will be fully liable to us for the settlement of any Transaction arising from it.
2. All the Foreign exchange or other investments that you may make via The Company will be registered under your name.

Client Reports

1. At the end of each trading day, client reports confirming all Transactions that we have executed on your behalf on that trading day will be available via your online Account on our website, which is updated online as each Transaction is executed. Confirmation of execution and statements of your Account(s), in the absence of manifest error, shall be deemed correct, conclusive and binding upon you if not objected to immediately by email if orders were placed through The Company's Online Trading System within five Business Days of making such confirmations available to you via our website or we notify you of an error in the confirmation within the same period.

In cases where the prevailing market represents prices different from the prices posted by The Company, The Company will attempt, on a best efforts' basis and in good faith, to execute market orders on or close to the prevailing market prices. This may or may not adversely affect customers realized and unrealized gains and losses.

3. The Company shall return any funds remaining in your trading account to your bank account, specifically the account from which the funds were debited. Your funds may be returned to another bank account to which you are the beneficiary as long as you provide us with the required documents to verify that the account belongs to you.

Risk Disclosure

1. The risk of loss arising from Foreign Exchange Contracts and over-the-counter Contracts for Differences can be substantial. You should carefully consider whether such investments are suitable for you in the light of your circumstances and financial resources.

2. If the market moves against your position, you may, in a relatively short time, sustain a total loss of the funds placed by way of margin or deposit. You may be required to deposit a substantial additional sum, at short notice, to maintain your margin balances. If you do not maintain your margin balances your position may be closed out at a loss and you will be liable for any resulting deficit. All positions carry margin requirements between 2% and 5.
3. Under certain market conditions it may be difficult or impossible to close out a position. This may occur, for example, where trading is suspended or restricted at times of rapid price movement.
4. Where permitted, placing a stop-loss order will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, for market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders at the stipulated price.
5. Foreign Exchange Contracts and over-the-counter Contracts For Differences can be highly volatile and investments in them carry a substantial risk of loss. The high degree of “gearing” or “leverage” which is often obtainable in trading these contracts stems from the payment of what is a comparatively modest deposit or margin when compared with the overall contract value. As a result, a relatively small market movement can, in addition to achieving substantial gains, where the market moves in your favor, result in substantial losses which may exceed your original investment where there is an equally small movement against you.
6. This brief statement cannot disclose all risks of investments in Foreign Exchange Contracts and Contracts For Differences. They are not suitable for many members of the public and you should carefully study such investments before you commit funds to them.
7. Investing in FX Contracts and CFDs with an underlying asset listed in a currency other than your base currency entails a currency risk, due to the fact that when the CFD or FX Contract is settled in a currency other than your base currency, the value of your return may be affected by its conversion into the base currency.
8. You should also be aware that they are using the website and its services at your own risk. Without limiting the foregoing, the Services are suitable only for customers who are able to bear the loss of all the money they invest, and who understand the risks and have experience in taking risks involved in financial markets. The possibility exists that you could sustain a loss of some or all of your investment and therefore you should not invest money that you cannot afford to lose. You should be aware of all the risks associated with digital options trading (including, but not limited to, risks stemming from market conditions, the rules of certain markets), and seek advice from an independent financial advisor if you have any doubts. You hereby acknowledge that you will bear sole responsibility for any losses caused through the use of the Site and/or the Services.
